

Be Peace. Choose Peace. Create Peace.

SUGGESTED RESOURCES ON SEX-BASED AGGRESSION AND VIOLENCE

Version 10182017

Introduction

Sex-based aggression and violence is an umbrella term for a range of behaviors including sexism, misogyny, sexual harassment, and sexual violence.

Peace Through Action USA suggests the following resources for deeper learning about or teaching on sex-based aggression and violence. Our listing of these resources should not be interpreted to imply endorsement. Nor should this list be considered exhaustive.

Resources Hub on Sexual Violence

- National Sexual Violence Resource Center provides leadership in preventing and responding to sexual violence through collaboration, sharing and creating resources, and promoting research.

Resources for Children and Youth

- Know Your IX—survivor- and youth-led organization that aims to empower students to end sexual violence in their schools.
- Let's Be Real—movement about relationships by young people for young people.
- Sexual Harassment: Not in Our School!—video-based training for middle and high school students, parents, schools, and community organizations about gender equality in education, students' protections under Title IX, and more.

Resources for Adults

- Learn and implement Steps You Can Take to Prevent Sexual Assault as a bystander.
- Start with Respect provides tips for young men on how to start a respectful relationship with women.
- Nicole Stamp, a Canadian director, writer, actor, and TV host lists 14 concrete ways that people can combat sexual harassment and violence.

Resources for Parents and Caring Adults

- Making Caring Common—6 Tips for Parents: Reducing and Preventing Misogyny and Sexual Harassment Among Teens and Young Adults.
- RAINN—Talking to Your Kids About Sexual Assault.
- U.S. News and World Report—How to Talk to Kids About Sexual Harassment.
- Stop Sexual Assault in Schools addresses sexual harassment and violence and K-12 students' rights. The organization has parent education and action resources.

Resources for Schools and Youth-Serving Organizations

- Coaching Boys Into Men—evidence-based prevention program that trains and motivates high school coaches to teach their young male athletes healthy relationship skills and that violence never equals strength.

Suggested Resources on Sex-Based Aggression and Violence

- Dating Matters—free, online course developed by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention available to educators, school personnel, youth mentors, and others dedicated to highlight what teen dating violence is and how to prevent it.
- A Call to Men's LIVERESPECT™ Healthy, Respectful Manhood curriculum helps prevent bullying and dating violence in school and sports. The curriculum offers coaches, educators, mentors, and youth advocates the tools to build young men of character.

Resources for Colleges

- Teach Bystander Intervention to college students using the exercises in this guide from the National Sexual Violence Resource Center.
- The Center for Changing Our Campus Culture provides resources for colleges and universities on sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.
- Sexual Violence on Campus: Strategies for Prevention, developed by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, provides a starting place for sexual violence practitioners and their campus partners to begin planning for and implementing sexual violence prevention strategies in a college or university setting.

Resources for Employers

- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's Leading for Respect (for supervisors) and Respect in the Workplace (for all employees) curricula are available to train workers on harassment prevention and respectful workplaces.

Resources for Places of Prayer and Worship

- Church Administrative Professionals—Tips for Preventing Sexual Harassment in Churches.
- Faith Trust Institute provides multifaith and religion-specific intervention and prevention training, consulting, and educational materials for faith-based and secular organizations in sexual violence, healthy boundaries for clergy and spiritual teachers, and other topics.

Resources for Systems Change Agents

- Stop SV—technical package, developed by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, represents a select group of strategies based on the best available evidence to help communities and states sharpen their focus on prevention activities with the greatest potential to reduce sexual violence (SV) and its consequences.
- Bystander Intervention can be taught to community members so that they are equipped to intervene in cases of sexual harassment and sexual violence.

About Peace Through Action USA

Peace Through Action USA energizes volunteers and servant leaders to activate Americans to reject aggression and violence and equip them with practical solutions to establish peace between people and groups where we live, learn, work, play, and pray. We are a national-scope, charitable, social capital-building organization. Learn more at www.PeaceThroughAction.org.

Have a suggested addition to this information sheet? Send a note to inbox@peacethroughaction.org. If you found this information sheet beneficial, please give a gift of money to support our creation and maintenance of similar resources.